

"Geld eint, Geld trennt" 2: Coinage, Regionalism and Identities

Deutsches Archäologisches Institut – Cluster 6 (Arbeitsgruppe 3: "Geld eint, Geld trennt") and the Oxford Roman Economy Project (OXREP)

The Old Library, All Souls College, Oxford University, 24th–25th November 2017

Friday 24th November

10:00 AM	Opening
10:20 AM	Pierre-Yves Milcent	University of Toulouse	Metal hoarding practices, pre-monetary exchanges and cultural networks in the North-West of France (13th–5th century BC).
11:00 AM	John Creighton	University of Reading	Objects of adornment, self-identity and the evolution of social currencies in Iron Age Britain.
11:40 AM	Coffee
12:10 PM	Marleen Termeer	University of Leiden	Coinage and regionalism in Italy during the Roman conquest.
12:50 PM	Suzanne Frey-Kupper	University of Warwick	'...utuntur omnes uno genere nummorum?' From division to unity? Sicily and satellite islands.
1:30 PM	Lunch
2:40 PM	David Weidgenannt	Goethe University, Frankfurt	Shared identities? Cooperative and civic coinages in Greek federal states (5th–1st century BC).
3:20 PM	Ulrike Wolf	Goethe University, Frankfurt	Coinage as a means of communication in the Western Mediterranean c. 500–100 BC.
4:00 PM	Coffee

"Geld eint, Geld trennt" 2: Coinage, Regionalism and Identities

4:30 PM	Thomas Schattner	Deutsches Archäologisches Institut	Blown up! Roman coins and their figurative representations as prototypes for Northern Hispanic funerary stele.
5:00 PM	Johannes Nollé	Deutsches Archäologisches Institut	The shaping impact of regional traditions and Roman province borders on Asia Minor's local coinage during the Roman Empire.
5:40 PM	Jérémie Chameroy	Römisch-Germanisches Zentralmuseum, Mainz	Civic and regional coinage at Elaia (Aiolis), port of Pergamum, and the construct of a common identity in Aiolis, Mysia and Lydia.
6:30 PM	Drinks
7:30 PM	Dinner for speakers

Saturday 25th November

9:00 AM	Hülya Vidin	Goethe University, Frankfurt	Coinage and identity in Caria in the transition from the Hellenistic to the Roman period. The case study of Alabanda.
9:40 AM	Dario Calomino	University of Warwick	The Levant after Septimius Severus: regional patterns and local identities in the coinage of the oriental provinces.
10:20 AM	Marguerite Spoerri	Oxford University	Presence and absence of imperial portrait on Roman provincial coins: some thoughts on local, regional and imperial policies.
11:00 AM	Coffee
11:20 AM	Clare Rowan	University of Warwick	Tokens, coinage and identities in the city of Rome.
12:00 PM	Denise Wilding	University of Warwick	The lead tokens of Graeco-Roman Egypt: A re-examination in the context of local and provincial identities.
12:40 PM	Lunch
1:40 PM	Johan van Heesch	Coin Cabinet, Royal Library of Belgium	Regionalism on the coinage of the Late Roman Empire.
2:20 PM	David Wigg-Wolf	Deutsches Archäologisches Institut	Creating identities in the Northern Barbaricum.
3:00 PM	Tea
3:20 PM	Ruth Pliego	Institut d'études avancées, Paris	Tracing the identity of the Germanic people through their coins: the case of the Visigoths.
4:00 PM	Martin Allen	Fitzwilliam Museum, Cambridge	Coinage and national identities in the British Isles, 1066–c. 1300.
4:40 PM	Discussion
5:00 PM	Close		